The AVS photographic society
(THE ASSAM VALLEY SCHOOL)

Celebrating 25 years of photography

WELCOME

SILVER JUBILEE YEAR
The Assam Valley School

The AVS Photographic Society of The Assam Valley School is celebrating 25 glorious years of AVS in a very special manner. We are presenting the 'Best 25 Photographs' taken by the students of this club. We have selected the photographs on the basis of their popularity over the years.

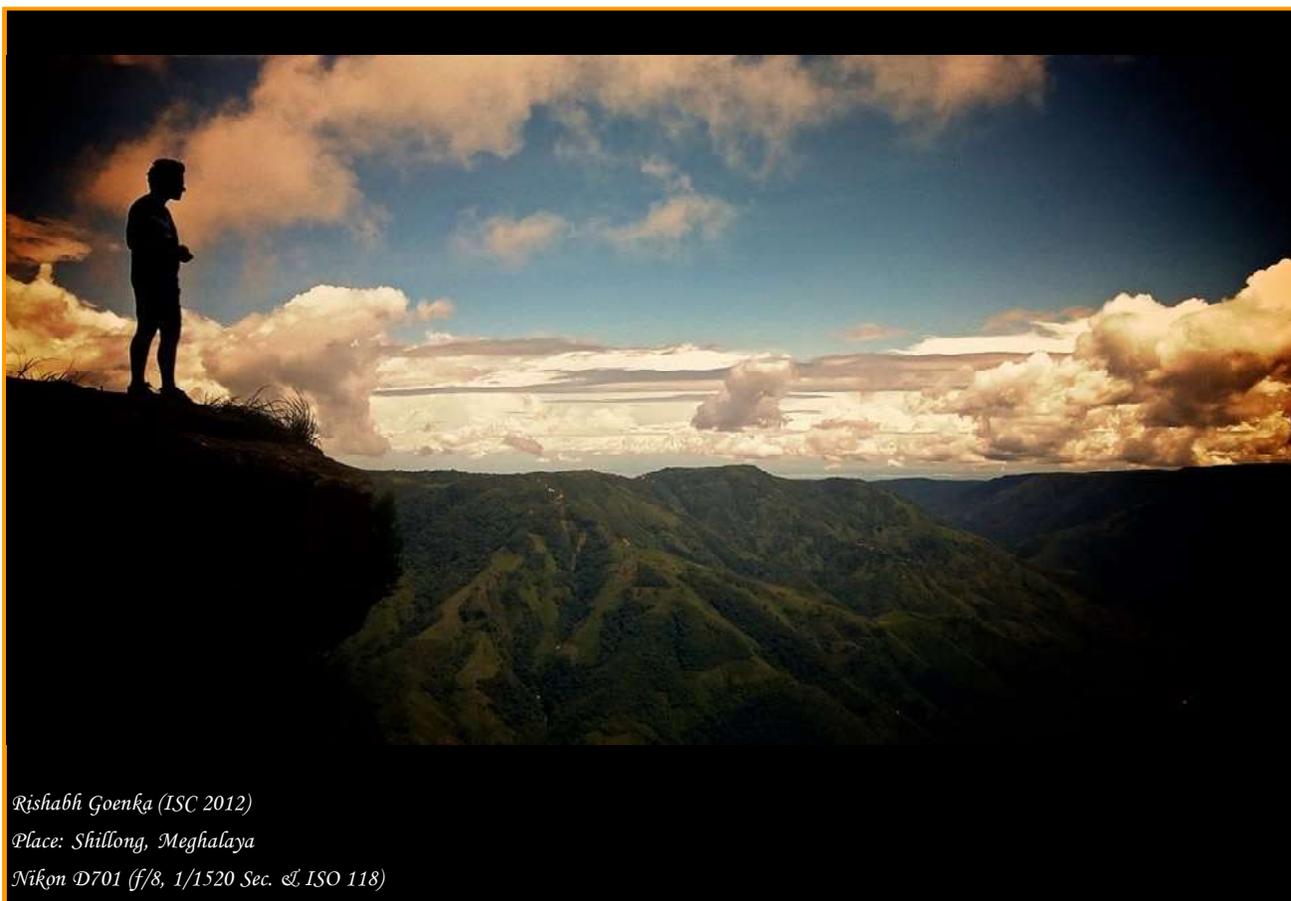

Some of the selected photographs have been featured in reputed magazines like Lonely Planet, Eclectic Northeast, Better Photography and local dailies like Seven Sisters Post, The Assam Tribune, The Telegraph to name a few. Ansel Adams once quoted 'when words become unclear, we shall focus with photographs. When images become inadequate, we shall be content with silence.' As you flip through this month's edition of 'ViewFinder', we are sure you will slip into silence, not because the images are inadequate but because with pictures as beautiful as these, words are not necessary.
